The place from Brisbane offers 90 different menus and drinks on the menu at an average A$9. What Angelina Schmitt likes about Tea Master:

Really nice place to eat. Food plates were smaller than expected but the food was really nice so it was worth it.

Lots of vegan options which is amazing and everything was presented well. It wasn't busy either so we were served straight away. Definitely go here if you're vegan and staying in Brisbane! read more. You can use the WiFi of the establishment at no extra cost, And into the accessible rooms also come customers with wheelchairs or physical limitations. If the weather conditions are right, you can also have something to eat outside. What Cleora Bartell doesn't like about Tea Master:

Lovely, warm service. I was really excited to find a fully vegetarian Asian menu, however was significantly underwhelmed by the bland food. The crispy duck was wet and leathery maybe microwaved? So much room for improvement to help bring meat eaters in read more. The large selection of coffee and tea specialties greatly enhances the value of a visit to Tea Master, the menu also includes tasty vegetarian dishes. The preparation of the meals is done authentically Asian, Besides, the inventive blend of different meals with new and sometimes adventurous ingredients is appreciated by the visitors - a good case of Asian Fusion.
