This place has changed hands a number of times since it first opened, and it's really good now. We've been back a number of times and have found their decent range of yum cha dishes to be consistently well made and appealing. Giving an extra point for the great service and for being the only yum cha joint in Perth that asks you how your meals were at the end : read more. In beautiful weather you can even eat in the outdoor area, And into the accessible spaces also come visitors with wheelchairs or physiological limitations. What Janis Konopelski doesn't like about Paddy Field Chinese Restaurant:

It was hard to rate this place. The service and staff was all over the shop. Total disorganization! Food would be brought out from the kitchen and then just sit on the bench. We had to ask for all sauces which annoys me as the dumplings sit there getting cold while you wait. Now the food. The prawn and core Andre dumplings were delicious but the pork ribs with black beans were not good. A nothing flavor and tough mea... read more. The comprehensive diversity of coffee and tea specialties greatly enhances the value of a visit to Paddy Field Chinese Restaurant, You can also unwind at the bar with a cool beer or other alcoholic and non-alcoholic drinks. The eatery provides a diverse variety of delicious tapas, which are undoubtedly worth a sample, Furthermore, the guests love the creative combination of different dishes with new and partially experimental ingredients - a nice example of successful Asian Fusion.
