Almost missed this hipster cafe. Wasn't expecting anything to be opened at but this was opened at Served up one hell of a hearty breakfast and coffee. Especially those staying along Pier St, like Pensione, do drop by read more. In beautiful weather you can even be served in the outdoor area, And into the accessible rooms also come customers with wheelchairs or physical disabilities. What Luca Kaya doesn't like about Mercado Negro: I drop in here when I need a moment. It's not that busy and there's no great fuss. It makes food that improves the simpler that you go. I once tried a posher salad and was disappointed. So I just grab a decent coffee and...a toasted sandwich and that's just fine. I can sit and gaze into nowhere for ages if I need to. Music soundtrack is cool and just the right volume for an old fart like me so I appreciate that too.... read more. The comprehensive diversity of coffee and tea specialties greatly enhances the value of a visit to Mercado Negro, The delicious sandwiches, healthy salads and other snacks are also suitable for a snack. Besides small snacks and sweet pieces, we also offer cold and hot drinks and cakes, Additionally, they serve you typical Australian dishes with products like bush tomatoes and finger limes.
