What KaiTor likes about Kagura Sushi House: They have the common little train for their dishes, give one a chance to see before choosing. The meals are colour coded by price and are delicious, well prepared. Full range of Japanese plates, but their sashimi and suchu is very good. read more. The diner and its premises are wheelchair accessible and thus reachable with a wheelchair or physiological limitations, Depending on the weather conditions, you can also sit outside and have something. What Eric B doesn't like about Kagura Sushi House: This small restaurant has no toilet for customers. Had the rainbow roll at 15 dollars for 8 slender pieces, fish was fine, however some pieces topped with chewy squid. Ginger and wasabi was old and oxidation had soured taste. Wife had chicken katsu which was again ok, but came with dry and bland curry puffs, sliced cucumber and a underwhelming seaweed salad. read more. For you, Kagura Sushi House from Como prepares scrumptious sushi (e.g., Maki and Sashimi), in numerous other versions, with fresh ingredients like fish, vegetables and meat, Besides, the inventive blend of different menus with new and sometimes adventurous ingredients is appreciated by the customers - a good case of Asian Fusion. After the meal (or during it), you can still relax at the bar with a alcoholic or non-alcoholic drink, and healthy Japanese meals are being made with lots of fresh vegetables, fish and meat.
