The food is authentic and served in small portions. Taste great. Slightly pricey but worth it, and attentive service. Food came out quickly. From our table next to the kitchen, we could see 4 Japanese chefs hard at work and 5 service staff. Despite the crowd on a busy Friday night, we were out within the hour. read more. The restaurant also offers the possibility to sit outside and have something in beautiful weather. What Kymberly C doesn't like about Ha-Lu:

We were really looking forward to trying this restaurant out and although the presentation was absolutely amazing the food was average. We started with the chicken KarAge which was very very average. It had some sort of very strange better on the chicken which had a glutenous texture around the chicken. The other two dishes we had contained minced meat and they were very very average. I have no idea what the hype is... read more.
