I've been Banh Mi Co on two occasions, to have bun vermicelli and rice paper rolls. It's moderately prices and delicious food - but my only gripe would be that at lunch time on weekdays there is always a wait, usually a line involved too. I guess that speaks well of their food but it may not suit people in a rush, or, like me - people who'd prefer not to wait around in lines at lunchtime. I often pass Banh Mi Co,... read more. The restaurant also offers the possibility to sit outside and have something in nice weather. What Lamont Yost doesn't like about Banh Mi Co:

The roll was fairly good, particularly a very crusty roll although the interior was as chewy as it was fluffy. They really didn't put much ingredients in and the pate and chilli was poorly distributed at first, I thought there wasn't any of either but then I found big globules. I'd rate it a normally if it were thicker) but for this is ridiculous. You don't even have to go to the well-known suburbs for a better deal,... read more. Banh Mi Co from Pyrmont is a suitable bar to a cocktail after work, and hang out with friends, The fine sandwiches, small salads and other snacks are also suitable for a snack. It's precisely the freshness and lightness together with the typical spices that not only brings tasty meals to the plate, but also puts the visitors into a pleasant holiday feeling temporarily, The meat is freshly cooked here on an open flame.
