a very tiny place but feels very authentic and homely. really liked the environment. chilli chicken with rice was amazing. then another time i tried chilli pork and avacado sushi. the portion of the meal is very fulling. the food is great.. must try for...chilli pork.. Service is excellent, decore quite traditional. Lots of choice on the menu. The food was okay, think food was defrosted in the microwave, the wakame had ice in it, the gyoza was store bought, and the raw fish didn't seem fresh, but the rice was...good. Again excellent service, and decent price but not quality Japanese food. read more.
