What Valentine Franecki likes about Kanzo: pampered on this jewel in parramatta accidentally looking for a bank on our first day visit sydney. the only place can compare this tasteful restaurant is located in the famous melbourne crown towers hotel plaza. they come in decently large portions with carefully...taste taste perfect for their taste directions. kanzo fresh sushi is not just a sushi bar. it served popular dishes from japan. the only thing I regret... read more. The restaurant is accessible and can therefore also be used with a wheelchair or physical disabilities, Depending on the weather conditions, you can also sit outside and be served. What Selmer Dibbert doesn't like about Kanzo: A small little respite amidst a boisterous and bustling neighbourhood, Kanzo offers an extremely wide of sushi, sashimi, ramen, udon, don, bentos, etc. This is pretty "amazing" for a tiny restaurant with less than 20 seats. A jack of all trades, a master of none - the sushi was poorly rolled, compressed and sliced. The inferior ingredients used in the preparation did not help much either. The result is a sushi whic... read more. For you, Kanzo from Parramatta prepares scrumptious sushi (e.g., Nigiri and Inside-Out), in many additional versions, with fresh ingredients like fish, vegetables and meat, On the daily specials there are also several Asian meals. Look forward to the enjoyment of tasty vegetarian dishes, Besides, the successful blend of different meals with new and partially adventurous ingredients is appreciated by the customers - a good case of Asian Fusion.
