Was not sure what we would get when we went in. Not a modern interior but was very pleasantly surprised. Great basic dishes cooked well. Service was fast and friendly. Portions were large. Meat was cooked just right. Everything very tasty. Would recommend. read more. The diner and its premises are wheelchair accessible and thus usable with a wheelchair or physical disabilities, Depending on the weather, you can also sit outside and be served. What Wilhelm Conn doesn't like about Kafenes:

The slow cooked lamb worked best, expensive but a large serve, however it was not as tender or flavoursome as competitors. All the other things were much blander than they looked (except maybe the garlic pita, which was a great idea). Especially the finger-type spanakopita,...which were tough and had hardly any filling inside the pastry, and the small serve of kefalograviera. There are several fancy Greek places in t...
