Selected this restaurant based on reviews and was not disappointed. Apparently family run and it has a great feel to it. For a business meeting we only tried a few of the lunch sets but were very impressed by those meals, and there was a...restaurant full of rather satisfied looking diners. I will be returning soon with my wife and some friends! read more. In nice weather you can even be served in the outdoor area. What Alda Ratke doesn't like about Kabuki Shoroku:

I tried the Kaiseki menu at this restaurant and had a wonderful experience! The sushi and sashimi here is so delicious and fresh. They also give you the perfect rice-fish ratio for the nigiri. I can't wait to return and try one of their other degustation menus! read more. The visitors love it when Asian cuisine meets a bit of creativity. That's exactly what you can expect at the Kabuki Shoroku from Sydney, with its successful Asian fusion cuisine - the right mix of traditional meets the adventurous world of fusion cuisine, on the menu there are also a lot of Asian dishes. Furthermore, they offer you fine seafood dishes, Particularly delicious are also the Maki and specialties like Sashimi from this restaurant.
