Celebrated the end of a client engagement with breakfast at the Grand Duk with my senior. Usually only ordered coffee at this place before heading back upstairs, but we had time to spare on a Friday morning today! Service was average, nothing amazing, got seated after waiting a while without being served, but that's fine. We both ordered the brekky's nest ($15), and wasn't expecting much. What we were served, was qu... read more. The place also offers the possibility to sit outside and have something in beautiful weather, And into the accessible spaces also come clientele with wheelchairs or physiological limitations. What Jacky Cummerata doesn't like about Grand Duk:

the cafe is beautiful and it has beautiful outside seats. the personal was also friendly. but I must say the meat lover omelet I ordered was the worst omelette I had for a very long time. the omelette was very heavy on cheese.

I don't know what kind of thing it was, but it smelled and tasty. the omelette was quite large. the duck on the serviette was sweet. coffee was good. simply do not order the omelette. read more. At Grand Duk from The Rocks they offer different exquisite French menus, Furthermore, the visitors of the restaurant enjoy the comprehensive variety of the various coffee and tea specialities that the establishment has available. Also, the menus from the Australian continent of this establishment are notable, here they serve a appetizing brunch in the morning.
