Been here twice for brekky and both times it was delicious. I've had the big breakfast and everything on the plate was just perfect. The Boom Benedict is another good dish. They don't show pancakes on the menu but we asked the chef and he was more than happy to cook for us and it looked good and tasted even better. You should try the milkshakes as well. read more. What Jess Turcotte doesn't like about Boom Eatery:

Just your standard breakfast cafe in Crows Nest. Offers all the usual brekky options at normal prices. Location is good with plenty of parking around. Service was friendly, but they need to clean the tables quicker as birds hover around picking at scraps on the remaining plates. Nothing particularly wow factor about the food, but you get a decent feed. I did enjoy the chorizo though. Presentation is fairly average. read more.
