What Ron Murray likes about Whisk & Co: I recently visited this cafe whilst on a shopping trip with my daughter. We found it by accident and I'm so glad we did! Quirky decor, super friendly and attentive staff and so many lovely meals on the menu it was difficult to choose. They...had a great range of freshly squeezed juices too. There were vegan and gluten free options if you needed them. The food we had was generous, fresh, well presented, well priced an... read more. As a guest, you can use the WiFi of the place free of charge, Depending on the weather conditions, you can also sit outside and eat and drink. The rooms on site are accessible, and therefore no problem for visitors with wheelchairs or physiological limitations. What Elliot Parisian doesn't like about Whisk & Co: that was a fantastic little place for brekkie. a culinary dream menu and great staff. I was very impressed by hobart's culinary scene! whisk made me the best long mac I went back for one. from the west it was made with much less milk, and I think they transformed me. my satay benedikt was on the presentation of the view and equally satisfied with the gaumen. loved the special table, benedikt bar and goodies in the ca...
