We went to cinnamon while we were in Launceston in our vacation in Tasmania. And we loved it so much that we came back to this place before we went. Grief Grief The chicken Tikka Masala was simply excellent, Naan was the softest we had ever tasted in Australia. I wish there was a restaurant serving such a delicious India food here in Melbourne. Grief Grief Total totally loved, we will certainly go back for a meal whe... read more. What Chauncey Bashirian doesn't like about Cinnamon Cafe & Indian Restaurant:

What a bad luck! After we read good things about this place, we were thrilled, but soon everything changed to a bad experience. the restaurant is located in a complex, from the outside it did not look like a restaurant, the tables and chairs in the restaurant were of alfresco food or outdoor use. Apart from all the things that the curries had run and drip over our table. they tasted average, there are better places i... read more. A visit to Cinnamon Cafe & Indian Restaurant becomes even more rewarding due to the comprehensive range of coffee and tea specialties, One also prepares meals tastily and freshly with traditional Indian spices. Also worth mentioning at this restaurant are the courses from Australia, The traditional German menus with matching sides such as dumplings and salads, are especially popular among the guests.
