What John P likes about Two Seats Thai: We ate here twice during our stay at Hotel 59 on Bayswater Road and really enjoyed both meals. Service was excellent, the food was authentic Thai and the serves were generous. The restaurant is only tiny so it would pay to make a booking as it filled very quickly. Great value! read more. When the weather conditions is nice you can also eat and drink outside. What Hazel L doesn't like about Two Seats Thai: This is on the quiet side of Kings Cross. I was told that it's best to book ahead. Sure enough, we found the place had only 3 tables. However, the warm hospitality made up for it. We had green curry, pad thai and fish cakes as appetiser, which was plenty for the three of us. At the end we had to pack the leftovers to go.... Food was average, but one cannot never compare to what one had in Thailand. read more. Two Seats Thai from Rushcutters Bay uses for its tasty meals the Thai culinary popular spices and (fish-)sauces, along comes freshly harvested vegetables, seafood and meat, The creative fusion of different dishes with fresh and occasionally daring ingredients is highly valued by the customers - a nice example of Asian Fusion. Most menus are prepared quickly for you and served, You can also unwind at the bar with a freshly tapped beer or other alcoholic and non-alcoholic drinks.
