Imaginative menu with something for everyone, and an inexpensive wine list compared to other places. The serving staff were friendly and the food was perfectly prepared, cooked and served. We were staying across the road on Agar Steps and this was local, but we only were able to go once because the restaurant is closed on a Sunday and Monday. Were we to return to Sydney we would certainly return. read more. The restaurant also offers the possibility to sit outside and have something in pleasant weather. What Moses Parker doesn't like about The Local Eatery:

Ate here this evening with my family. We had mains only plus a bottle of wine. The service was very good and friendly. The food quality seems fair and of the four of us who ate two felt that a score of 4 would be right. Whilst two others felt that 3 would be more fair. This would give an overall average of 3.5 - which seems about right. The ambience is good and the restaurant is busy and popular. However the quality... read more. At The Local Eatery, a restaurant with Italian dishes from MILLERS POINT, you can enjoy typical Italian cuisine, including classics like pizza and pasta, the place provides also meals from the European environment. Of course, there's also crisply crunchy pizza, baked fresh according to original recipes. Additionally, they offer you authentic Australian dishes with products like bush tomatoes and finger limes.
