We came for Valentines day and its a nice casual spot for a drink and meal. We ordered the bruscetta, zucchini flowers and steak. All food was well cooked and delicious. Handy location in the heart of Sydney CBD too. read more. The restaurant also offers the possibility to sit outside and have something in nice weather, And into the accessible spaces also come visitors with wheelchairs or physical disabilities. What Kassandra Sawayn doesn't like about The Lane:

Coffee was solid, though not as hot as I would expect for a long black. The breakfast menu is quite limited and coupled with Mürrischem Wait staff the alley did not look promising. Grief Order the eggs Benedict with smoked ham. For a plate closer to 20 US dollars closer than $ 15, I expect no round ham slices. An egg was overcooked and barely ongoing with the other stain. Not sure how that happens. The room is great.... read more.
