What Ibrahim Schulist likes about The Giant Bean Cafe:

cozy cafe with sitting in the indoor and outdoor areas and a menu with healthy options such as their breakfast dishes. the "Morning Bowl" was particularly delicious with its green bounty, including kale, Slav and half avocado, with smoked salmon, poached eggs and house relish all top perfectly boiled brown rice. The premises on site are wheelchair accessible and can also be used with a wheelchair or physiological disabilities, Depending on the weather, you can also sit outside and eat and drink. What Vergie Paucek doesn't like about The Giant Bean Cafe:

I don't care what the food and coffee has here, even though I had some experience that can refer to the following reviews of good foods like the breakfast maker, although there were mistakes with my coffee and other orders. I also don't like what I can see from the owners answer, he seems mean and abrupt to customers who are not what they would expect from a owner, so they don't think I'll see after this again. The large variety of coffee and tea specialties greatly enhances the value of a visit to The Giant Bean Cafe, For a snack, you can also have the yummy sandwiches, small salads and other snacks. If you want to have breakfast, a versatile brunch awaits you, Additionally, they provide you typical Australian dishes with products like bush tomatoes and finger limes.
