My husband took me here for dinner on Saturday night. It's a small and cosy Japanese restaurant which is very close to city. We ordered the assorted sashimi and tempura. It's delicious and fresh. I like the hairy crab very much. Well presented and tasted unique. My husband enjoyed the Rosan duck pancakes with a great selection of sake the most. The price is reasonable for the good quality of food and good service. N... read more. When the weather is good you can also eat outside. What Lauriane Kub doesn't like about Rosan Japanese Cuisine: fabulous Japanese restaurant serves traditional cuisine with reasonable trips. service is attentive and efficient. very recommended! The portion sizes are good and the sauces used were so delicious, they want to lick their plate clean! are served in sweet and artsy small plates and dishes. good selection of sake- are in the rule not a fan of but tries sake called 'thatai' and I am now transformed.
