Here you can find the menu of East Bar and Dining in Mount Martha. At the moment, there are 21 courses and drinks on the card. East restaurant offers a dining experience that is both inconsistent and disappointing, with some dishes standing out while others fall short. The set menu options seem overpriced for what is offered and the lack of choice in the tasting menu leaves diners feeling underwhelmed. The restaurant's policy of only offering set menus for larger groups also comes across as out of touch with customer needs. However, for those who have enjoyed their previous visits, the welcoming environment, friendly service, and passionate chefs provide a unique experience that is worth considering. While the restaurant may not be for everyone, those who appreciate the creativity and dedication of the culinary team may find East to be a hidden gem worth exploring.
