Dropped in for a coffee and something to eat. What a lovely place. The owners greeted you a smile. The coffee was very good and I am very fussy with my coffee. I had the chicken schnitzel focaccia that was tasty and my friend had the Persian eggs. Both were delicious and made with love. Definitely go back read more. The restaurant and its premises are wheelchair accessible and thus reachable with a wheelchair or physiological disabilities, and there is complimentary WiFi. If the weather are right, you can also eat outside. What Genevieve Paucek doesn't like about Rosey Joans:

I feel for people starting out in cafes down this end of town, where there are quite a few to choose from and you have to ask yourself, what does this cafe offer the others don't? The coffee was average, the cake was dry(sorry but it was, a bit of cream might have helped) all slices bought in.. Nothing new. Open early but not a breakfast menu.. Wraps and focassias that sort of thing and sandwiches.. The staff were fr... read more.
