What Brain Thiel likes about Mapo BBQ Restaurant:

Went here for my brothers birthday and had a great time. It had enough ventilation so for the smoke from cooking and didn't make our clothes smell too much from the cooking smell. The price was reasonable for the varied selections of meat we choose....Side dishes was ok, could do with better servings and also with more of the dipping sauces. Service was bit underrated. However it may just be a language barrier. Overa... read more.

The restaurant and its premises are wheelchair accessible and thus reachable with a wheelchair or physical limitations, Depending on the weather, you can also sit outside and have something. What Haylee McKenzie doesn't like about Mapo BBQ Restaurant:

The service here is incredible. They are kind and patient with always a smiling face. However, I found the quantity and quality of the bbq meat to be quite disappointing and I may not return again in a hurry: read more.

The customers love it when Asian cuisine meets a bit of creativity. That's exactly what you can expect at the Mapo BBQ Restaurant from Forest Lake, with its successful Asian fusion cuisine - the right mix of what you know meets the adventurous world of fusion cuisine, Here, the meat is freshly grilled on an open flame. Korean meals like Kimchi, Bap and Jjigae, which are typical, always find their way onto the menu card and the tables of the visitors, and you can look forward to the delicious classic seafood cuisine.
