What Kirk Ullrich likes about Saffron:

Very good food, and great service, and, big enough to cope with most Covid restrictions if you make a booking at the last minute. There are smaller tables and a more enclosed area if you want a more intimate dinner, or a huge floor for...the big function. The banquets are great value dips, entrees, meats, veggies and dessert all at a decent pace that's never too fast or too slow, though it's worth breaking out and ch... read more. The rooms on site are wheelchair accessible and can also be used with a wheelchair or physical limitations, Depending on the weather conditions, you can also sit outside and eat and drink. What Roma Bode doesn't like about Saffron:

Weber eaten here previously and the food was great. Not tonite though. Started off with a totally hopelessly slow waiter. The restaurant was not very busy yet he was just hopeless and had no customer service skills whatsoever. Our meals weren't very nice at all...and we both regretted that we ate here. Tasteless chicks of chewy chicken meat on a skewer. Half a plate of bland gluggy rice. The tabouli was ok but that w... read more. If you want to a beer after work and sit with friends or alone, Saffron from Canberra is a good bar, Dishes are also prepared here, tastily and freshly with original Indian spices. Furthermore, there are light Mediterranean menus on the menu, The magical desserts of the establishment also shine not only on children's plates and in children's eyes.
