I visited Edgar's on several occasions over February and March. Lovely open outdoor environment. Drawn in by the live music, I always found a seat and enjoyed a glass of wine in the late afternoon. Looks like a good range of wines. Other customers seemed chilled and happy. I'll go back! read more. When the weather conditions is good you can also be served outside, and there is complimentary WiFi. The rooms on site are accessible, and therefore no problem for visitors with wheelchairs or physiological limitations. What Jeff m doesn't like about Edgars Inn:

The service was satisfactory. The food was certainly acceptable (not outstanding but it doesn't have to be), but the prices were outlandish for what we got. Two pork sausages and some mashed potato for $27. I can't justify going back. read more. If you want to a beer after work and hang out with friends, Edgars Inn from Canberra is a good bar, the menu also includes delicious vegetarian menus. Watching various sports games and matches is also one of the main attractions when visiting this sports bar. Likewise, the guests of the establishment prefer the extensive variety of differing coffee and tea specialities that the restaurant provides.
