We've been there multiple times with friends and family and this time, we got the worst possible service ever. First of all, of you have a peanut allergy, don't even go to this place because they don't mention it anywhere in their menu. Secondly, we've...always split bills when we go there and they're ok with it. But this time, the girl serving us was very rude and she was saying how they can't split bills and she wa...
