Average Italian Cafe. Visited for a Saturday lunch, using a Scoopon deal. We shared a bruschetta for entrée, which was tasty but not very hot. For our mains, we chose the Schnitzel Parmigiana - 1 chicken and 1 beef - both served with lovely hot chips and a small salad. A generous serve and presented to us before we had a chance to finish our entrée. Certainly quick service but maybe a little too quick, if that's p... read more. When the weather is pleasant you can also eat outside, And into the accessible rooms also come customers with wheelchairs or physical disabilities. What Emmalee McLaughlin doesn't like about Cafe Bravo:

Poor service didn't get what I ordered. When you are paying for what you want that's what you should get. Not what the person behind the counter thought they heard as their not interested in what they are doing. read more. A visit to Cafe Bravo is particularly valuable due to the comprehensive range of coffee and tea specialties, and you can expect typical Italian cuisine with classics like pizza and pasta. If you decide to come for breakfast, a hearty brunch is ready for you, You shouldn't miss the opportunity to try the crispy and crunchy pizza, baked fresh in an traditional manner.
