Amongst a flood of small bars opening up on the Adelaide scene, The Bibliothecca Bar Book Exchange is trying to do things a little differently. Rather than attempting to impress crowds hungry for drinks served in jam jars and the craziest cocktail menu in the CBD, Bibliothecca strips drinking back to its roots with a large menu heavy with quality spirits from all corners of the globe. Great staff, service & wines. Good generous tapas-style plates including sufficient toast for the pate, but very limited vegetarian options. The Saturday night DJ occupies a fair section of the bar with his two laptops, and too much beat & volume for my ageing ears, I think causing patrons to shout unnecessarily, which impacts the ambience negatively in my view. Then the staff stand outside the front door for their c... read more. Just eating and drinking is too boring for you? Then a visit to this sports bar is just right: in addition to large and small snacks and dishes you can watch the latest football matches, tennis or Formula 1, Additionally, they provide you typical Australian menus with products like bush tomatoes and finger limes. Furthermore, you can order fresh prepared grill goods, There's something for all tastes and it's impossible to go wrong with the bite-sized Tapas.
