What Joshua Edwards doesn't like about In the Rough:

we eat here regularly as it is too foot away from home and craig, the chef cook will take allergies. but this is really the lucky dip of bistros. meal times can be very tasty or very fat. the Brat dinner is in the regular a winner and can sell...out quickly. new furniture has made it much more comfortable and reduces the noise level. lunch on the terrace brings the best view in the city. Also, the environment is of course significant, so the visitors appreciate not only the tasty dishes, but also the bistro as such love. Without doubt, the right drink enhances every meal; with this thought in mind, this gastropub offers a rich variety of fine and local alcoholic beverages like beer or wine, and you can look forward to the tasty classic seafood cuisine.
