Glad we did, as the flathead, chips and salad was delicious. The batter was so crisp, and never went soggy like some do. Excellent value for money, and friendly staff. Only commercial beers available; nothing interesting. Coke from the tap was flat, so the staff swapped for a can. read more. The diner and its rooms are wheelchair accessible and thus usable with a wheelchair or physiological limitations. What Marta Schoen doesn't like about Furners Hotel: avoid them like the plague, terrible service that eating was expensive steak was boiled incorrectly, they served the wrong meal, service girls seemed like they would rather be somewhere different...ordinary to eat best wise better places in tassie.
