Darwin colleagues took me to the amazing little haven for vegos and vegans while I was on a work visit.

Absolutely delicious and very generous meals - hot and cold. I had a scrumptious Indian inspired salad with lentils, beetroot, sweet potatoes and papadams - spicy, delicious and filling. They also serve fresh squeezed juices which go well with the foods. Such a treat! Nice outdoor table setting and atmosphere. read more. When the weather is good you can also eat and drink outside. What Jolie Zboncak doesn't like about Eat Martin's (Food for the Soul):

We arrived and the young man behind the counter eventually deigned to take our order - at least we assumed that's what he was doing. He didn't actually speak a single word. When we asked if they had water (tap water) he glared meaningfully at the earthenware dispenser next to a stack of small glasses. Yes, they had water. Water which may have been sitting all night as it was only slightly below body temperature. I li... read more.
