What Alize Hickle likes about Dier Makr: It was a cold, wintery Hobart night when we visited, but the welcome was very warm and friendly. The restaurant is tucked away at the back of a big building. It is small, with limited tables and a very small open galley kitchen. The team are young and passionate about wine and food. We had the set degustation menu for $65, which consisted of about 8 dishes including dessert. The food was delicate, interesting and rea... read more. The restaurant also offers the possibility to sit outside and eat in beautiful weather. What Iliana Beier doesn't like about Dier Makr:

visited here on recommended for a wine. an interesting place that offers both drinks and restaurant dishes: everything is very high. there is a very large weinlist with a lot of offer through the glass: the wee were very good, we let the waitress choose, based on...our preferences: prices are aligned with the experience. If you feel like afters, you should visit Dier Makr because they have tasty desserts that will definitely satisfy the sweet-tooth in you, Additionally, they offer you authentic Australian meals with ingredients like bush tomatoes and finger limes. Eventually, the atmosphere also has importance: At this point, the bistro with its romantic small size can evoke the right homely atmosphere, You can also unwind at the bar with a freshly tapped beer or other alcoholic and non-alcoholic drinks.
