Wow these Adelaide wineries are amazing! We were visiting from the UK and visited a few wineries for lunch during our stay. Coriole's was our finale with a table for 14 including 6 (fortunately well behaved) children. It was a glorious sunny Sunday and we were seated on the terrace with amazing views. The waitress was fabulous and very on the ball. There was only the set menu option but the younger children were off... read more. The restaurant and its premises are wheelchair accessible and thus reachable with a wheelchair or physiological disabilities, Depending on the weather conditions, you can also sit outside and be served. What Salma Rivas doesn't like about Coriole Vineyards:

A pleasant lunch in the gardens of Coriole on a perfect sunny day complimented by a drop of white. We tried duck and a prawn and pork surf and turf. The former was delicious! read more. If you crave for sweet dishes, Coriole Vineyards with its fine desserts can surely make an end of it, It's possible to chill out at the bar with a cool beer or other alcoholic and non-alcoholic drinks. Important are also the menus from the Australian continent of this establishment, there are also delicious vegetarian meals in the menu.
