In Melbourne mid week on business and only around the corner in Port Melbourne, my local based business colleague suggested we call in here for lunch as he's a regular. And what a gem of a place this is, in this very European looking warm inviting space, attentively attended to by gracious waiter, Christian. For entrees, I had the grilled Mooloolaba king prawns from the specials, and my colleague had the mushroom rav... read more.

When the weather conditions is nice you can also have something outside. What Roman Doyle doesn't like about Ciao Cielo:

We were disappointed by the not welcoming management while the waitress was very kind. The pasta were really average. The only pleasant part was a perfect Tiramisu. Not worth coming read more. Crispy pizza is baked hot from the oven at Ciao Cielo in Melbourne using a traditional method, and you can look forward to authentic Italian cuisine with classics like pizza and pasta. You can also look forward to delicious vegetarian cuisine, You can also unwind at the bar with a freshly tapped beer or other alcoholic and non-alcoholic drinks.
