The Italina restaurant is located on the waterfront in Melbourne. It was nice to sit outside and eat al fresco. This is not a gourmet restaurant, but the food is well prepared and satisfying. My risotto with chicken was done just right as was my wife's pizza. They even served the pizza uncut as one would expect in Italy. It's a nice place to have a good, yet casual dinner. read more. The restaurant is accessible and can therefore also be used with a wheelchair or physiological disabilities, Depending on the weather, you can also sit outside and have something.

What UdiGun doesn't like about Cervo Cafe:

For starters there should be a sign at the entrance for customers with bookings and for the walk-ins to stand separately. Everyone is standing in one line and no one to guide which was a very poor initial experience. The quality of food for the price we pay was below average. On a positive note, the waitress that served us was very accommodating and pleasant which somewhat took away the negativity of the rest of it.... read more. At Cervo Cafe in Melbourne, there's a delicious brunch in the morning where you can eat as much as you want feast, You shouldn't miss the opportunity to try the delicate pizza, baked straight out of the oven in an traditional manner. Moreover, awaiting for you is original Italian cuisine with delicious classics like pizza and pasta, The barbecued food is freshly grilled here on an open flame.
