What Oswaldo Mann likes about Brunswick Street Cider House:

I was invited out by friends and said yest before knowing the details. I am not a cider drinker and was a little worried when I was then given the address. I have to say I was pleasantly surprised and enjoyed the evening. We had the taster menu with the food and cider pairings and I have to say I was very happy to give everything a go. While I am still not a cider drinker I can honestly say the food and drink was pai... read more. The restaurant also offers the possibility to sit outside and have something in beautiful weather. What Trisha Zboncak doesn't like about Brunswick Street Cider House:

This is a good place to stop in for a drink but the food under performs. The meals we ordered were prepared well enough but were really quite small for pub fare. The steak was tiny and even the staple chicken parma was small. I...will go back but not to eat. read more. Want to spice up your eating and drinking routine? Come to this sports bar and enjoy a variety of large and small snacks and meals while watching live football, tennis or Formula 1 games, because just eating and drinking is too boring!, In addition, the drinks menu that is offered in this established eatery is impressive. It offers a diverse diversity of beers from the region and the whole world. One should particularly acknowledge the courses from the Australian continent of this restaurant, It's possible to chill out at the bar with a freshly tapped beer or other alcoholic and non-alcoholic drinks.
