Stopped in for a lunch at fairly short notice and managed to get a table. Bookings hard to get on weekends in the region in these Covid times it seems. Had been previously to buy honey but not too eat. Lunch was delicious.

The octopus...entre was delicious and the goldband snapper also good. Had a glass of sparkling white which was quite drinkable. Servings on the smaller side but good quality. Would return. What Dale King doesn't like about Barnyard1978:

Turned up Sunday morn for breakfast for 8 people and found all tables were reserved. However staff quickly arranged a bar and eight stools for us and we had excellent coffee bacon eggs salmon etc ... very tasty. A very interesting interior that fits the name ...couldn't fault the service or the food . Only negative unfortunately the unisex toilets could have been cleaner and fresher. read more.
