What Berneice Gerlach likes about Barmuda:

This is not just another "neighborhood coffee shop" despite its modest street front. When you explore the menu, the selection becomes more challenging with a tempting array of dishes and taste combinations. A late lunch with a friend made more enjoyable with great food and multiple coffees. Congrats to the Staff on the level of service and the entire welcoming atmosphere. Return visits are now inevitable!!! read more. When the weather conditions is good you can also have something outside, And into the accessible spaces also come customers with wheelchairs or physical disabilities. What Felton Sawayn doesn't like about Barmuda:

We found this place after exploring around Newtown. It is in a cul de sac behind the Newtown markets. We ordered Lamb falafel and roasted eggplant sandwiche for lunch. The lamb was tender and delicious with a roasted eggplant dip. The serving was small though. Not as huge as the breakfast dishes that were coming out. The roasted eggplant sandwiche is tasty but only a thin slice of eggplant! Location is great because... read more.

At Barmuda from Newtown it's possible to savor delicious vegetarian courses, that were made without any animal meat or fish, Additionally, they serve you authentic Australian meals with ingredients like bush tomatoes and finger limes. Not to be overlooked is also the comprehensive variety of coffee and tea specialties in this restaurant, Inthemorning a versatile brunch is offered here.
