Had a birthday dinner for my wife at The Point and tried their course menu. Everything was very original, delicious, and beautifully presented. At the start of the meal, I asked if we could change tables to optimize our view of the lake, and one of the team members had no problem with it—he helped us move. We had two small kids with us, and the team treated them well. I was able to take kids outside before the food w... read more. The restaurant and its rooms are wheelchair accessible and thus usable with a wheelchair or physiological disabilities, Depending on the weather, you can also sit outside and eat and drink. What david parry doesn't like about The Point:

We've been to this restaurant before the change of management to Chinese owner 3 years ago. Unfortunately we weren't aware of the change until we arrived at the restaurant. The view of the lake is excellent, the food better than average, the service attentive. What made us regretted coming here for the Chinese New Year Eve dinner was the portion of the food. The main dishes were only half of the portion we had here b... read more. The comprehensive variety of coffee and tea specialties greatly enhances the value of a visit to The Point, Additionally, they provide you typical Australian meals with products like bush tomatoes and finger limes. Besides simple snacks and sweet pieces, we also offer cold and hot drinks and cakes, the menu also includes fine vegetarian meals.
