Johann and Vincent are exceptional restaurateurs when life was normal, we loved visiting their beautiful venue to enjoy the exquisite cuisine and atmosphere. Now we are in this Covid lockdown, we are getting takeaway whenever possible and everything is equally as magnificent and their...charming demeanor and service remains. read more. The restaurant also offers the possibility to sit outside and be served in pleasant weather, and into the accessible rooms also come guests with wheelchairs or physiological disabilities. What Karlee Huels doesn't like about Brasserie l'Entrecote:

slow meal I had ever had. it took almost four hours! we were a group of 12. we have preordered the 3 courses banquet meals 5 days in advance and yet, after eating the gut, it took another hour to get the meals and again another hour dessert. both the meal and the dessert courses were only bought after we called a waiter and asked how much longer was the meal brought out? then we asked another hour later, how long until... A visit to Brasserie l'Entrecote is particularly valuable due to the large variety of coffee and tea specialties, the restaurant provides but also menus from the European context. You have the option to, after the meal (or during it), also relax at the bar with an alcoholic or non-alcoholic drink, and you can look forward to typical tasty French cuisine.
