Really cute Japanese place on the lakeside. Ordered the Tonkatsu and was really pleased with it. Vegetarian options: Had a couple of vegetarian options on the menu, not too much but definitely. Kid-friendliness: Seemed like a nice kid friendly place. Parking: There's parking for all the lakeside restaurants in the area. Wheelchair accessibility: There was a ramp and stair option leading towards the restaurant read more. In nice weather you can even eat and drink in the outdoor area, And into the accessible rooms also come visitors with wheelchairs or physiological limitations. What Andrea Lindqvist doesn't like about Tokio Fans:

The flavors of the food are average for a Japanese cuisine restaurant. At the time of this writing, I feel that the prices in their menu is on the high side, a mismatch from the products that they serve. Another observation is the consistency of food service for each table. In our table, like in others I observed, food are not served as close to each individual's order. As a result some people in our table are almost... read more. At Tokio Fans from Baulkham Hills, tasty sushi (e.g., Maki and Te-Maki) is prepared for you, along with numerous other variations, always fresh with ingredients like fish, vegetables and meat, Furthermore, the guests love the creative combination of different meals with new and partially experimental products - a nice example of successful Asian Fusion. If you decide to come for breakfast, you are offered a versatile brunch, It's possible to chill out at the bar with a cool beer or other alcoholic and non-alcoholic drinks.
