The staff need more training. One girl in particular did not know the specials on offer and was not that friendly either. She had to be prompted to go and ask on our behalf. Other than that, the food/location was great. read more. The place also offers the possibility to sit outside and have something in pleasant weather. What User doesn't like about The Bower Restaurant:

We booked and had a confirmation when we got there they had no booking for us. We showed the confirmation email and they said they would get us a table and proceeded to put a reserve ticket on a table where there were already diners sitting at the table. To cut a long story short we ended up leaving after 20 mins as there were no tables available and the staff were not interested in helping us. We had an overseas gue... read more.
