I've come here several times in the last 18 months, either for coffee with toast or cake, or else for wine. In all respects an outstanding cafe of its type. One of the few places I've come across where the black coffee is really enjoyable, and not too bitter. read more. The premises on site are accessible, and therefore no problem for customers with wheelchairs or physical limitations. What Gertraude

Rausch doesn't like about The Artisan Café:

I thought it would be nice to take the family out to lunch somewhere in adelaide. Friends recomended a nice drive up to blackwood.After walking around i found a cafe down a side ally. ARTISAN. I dont mind spending money on quality food and service but this location is very over priced. And staff no smile. Food tasted good but not great. All it takes is a little salt pepper to season any meal. read more. If you want to have a drink after work and sit with friends or alone, The Artisan Café from Blackwood Park is a good bar, In the morning they serve a varied breakfast here. It should not be forgotten that there is a comprehensive selection of coffee and tea specialties in this locale, Particularly with the bite-sized, Tapas you can't do anything wrong, because there is something for all tastes.
