Its hard to describe this restaurant as it defies traditional norms. Basically it is a cafe situated on Castlereagh St in downtown Sydney. The interior is modern and neat with good spacing between tables. However they treat their food very seriously. So expect to be surprised. The food was impeccably presented. Service was terrific. Change of serviettes at each course shows the level of attention that you will receive... read more. The restaurant also offers the possibility to sit outside and eat and drink in beautiful weather. What CDJMH doesn't like about Silverspoon:

Three categories: Food great flavour, very nicely presented. Wine embarrassingly poor wine list with most wines unavailable. Pricing of the wines bizarre to say the least. Staff friendly but still of the group that prefers to spend time on their smartphone rather than being aware of the customers. read more. In the Silverspoon from Sydney you can enjoy menus as they are common in Europe, and you can look forward to the delicious typical seafood cuisine. You have the option to, after the meal (or during it), still relax at the bar with an alcoholic or non-alcoholic drink, Likewise, the guests of the establishment prefer the large variety of differing coffee and tea specialities that the restaurant provides.
