We have been to deadly sins quite a few times for breakfast. The food selection is good but a little pricey. The hot chocolate is good to have and normally comes out quick. I normally have the bacon and egg pide which is one of the better value items at $10. I normally get the hash browns as well and by the end of eating all of this I am full. The staff are friendly and the place is normally very busy. The menus are... read more. What uu doesn't like about Seddon Deadly Sins:

Dissatisfied in writing this as I had been here before and was agreeing with my partner to come n try more of the menu offerings in the future. But sunday afternoon we went in and sat by the front window to tuck into the chicken burger for n blt for my partner. She was happy with hers, thought mine was not bad but felt suspicious of a chicken burger with a pattie about an inch thick n not really recognising chicken... read more.
