doesn't like about Sahara:

We visited as a group for dinner. The decor is atmospheric and staff were polite. We were disappointed that on our visit the kitchen were out of lamb, one of the key dishes. The starter plates were quite stodgy and uninspiring and the mains were average at best. Neither course was served particularly hot, which added to the tepid-at-best food experience. Melbourne is full of amazing restaurants. This one is not on th... read more. Sahara from Melbourne is a good option for a bar if you want to have a beer after work and hang out with friends, delicious vegetarian menus are also in the menu available. You can also find many international cuisines in the kitchen of the Sahara, Also, the drinks menu at this place is exceptional and offers a significant and varied selection of both local and international beers, which are definitely worth a try.
