A few months ago we had a bad experience and I wrote a review based on that experience BUT, I need to take it all back. If you have a bad experience somewhere, especially if it's here, you need to give it another go. We've been at least 6 times since our initial visit and let me tell you, we haven't been let down again. Great food. Great service. Awesome atmosphere. Great value for money. read more. The premises on site are wheelchair accessible and can also be used with a wheelchair or physiological limitations, Depending on the weather, you can also sit outside and have something. What Filiberto Heaney doesn't like about Market Eating House: 2nd time to this restaurant. The first time we really enjoyed the food. This time we ordered the octopus, the fish and the beef. The fish was nice but the other 2 dishes were too salty, and we were unable to finish these. The first...few mouth fulls tasted really good. Well seasoned food enhances the taste. But that was too much. Maybe it was just the chef that had on that night, because I can't see any other reviews mentioning the same thing. Anyway with the cost of the food we would not risk going back again now. The visitors love it when Asian cuisine meets a bit of creativity. That's exactly what you can expect at the Market Eating House from Bunbury, with its unconventional Asian fusion cuisine - the right mix of what you know meets the adventurous world of fusion cuisine, You can also unwind at the bar with a cool beer or other alcoholic and non-alcoholic drinks. Additionally, there are also easy to digest Mediterranean menus on the menu, Particularly the brilliant fusions of different ingredients offer the visitors a remarkable taste experience of this extraordinary fusion cuisine.
