We were so welcome considering we dripped in unannounced at 2pm on Mothers day. 2 adults, 2 kids and we were all treated wonderfully. Kids happily had nuggets and chips while hubby and I had a roast beef and a roast pork. The meals were so nice - just like Nanna would make - not mass produced in anyway. Good old fashioned roast with all the veggies, We also got a desert each and the kids had icecream. Apple and blue... read more.

The restaurant and its rooms are wheelchair accessible and thus reachable with a wheelchair or physical limitations, and there is complimentary WLAN. If the weather are right, you can also eat and drink outside. What User doesn't like about Wander Inn:

As a quirky road house serving the very basics this is fine - if you overlook the grumpy service. But the pricing reflects a very different experience than they offer. Most of the options we had were at least 3 times a sensible price, even given the location. read more. A visit to Wander Inn is particularly valuable due to the extensive variety of coffee and tea specialties, Naturally, you should also taste the fine burgers, accompanied by sides like fries, salads, or wedges offered. Look forward to the enjoyment of fine vegetarian meals, Additionally, they serve you authentic Australian meals with ingredients like bush tomatoes and finger limes.
