What User likes about Birchwood: Warm and toasty inside and a lively atmosphere. We were lucky enough to grab a table straight away. Service was prompt and exceeded my expectations, so friendly! Great to have gluten free options. My mum got the pulled lamb and it was beyond amazing, I had gluten free 5 seed toast with avo, mushrooms and haloumi delicious!! Coffee is fantastic the best I had whilst in town. You can't book so there some cute shops arou... read more. The restaurant and its premises are wheelchair accessible and thus usable with a wheelchair or physical limitations, Depending on the weather conditions, you can also sit outside and eat. WiFi is available free of charge. What User doesn't like about Birchwood:

The Sri Lankan breakfast bowl was delicious. there was a poached egg in the middle of it which wasn't mentioned on the menu, but Luckily could be removed easily. So double check if you order but otherwise the flavors were amazing and something very different for breaky. Not a lot of vegan options but that one was super tasty and unusual (eg not just avo on toast) read more. In today's time you could possibly be considering healthier eating habits; for such considerations Birchwood's menu offers a large selection of easily digestible dishes, Additionally, they offer you typical Australian dishes with ingredients like bush tomatoes and finger limes.
