The restaurant was busy but not crowded. We had braised beef, peas, and mashed potatoes. I had a lemon-lime drink with bitters which was also good. Everyone was friendly and we were so relaxed that we did not leave until dark. We did find our way back to the hotel. The restaurant is at the foot of where the Big Winch is located. My wife is more of a foodie and she liked the food and the atmosphere. We would definitel... read more. The restaurant also offers the possibility to sit outside and eat and drink in pleasant weather. What User doesn't like about Italo-Australian Miners Club:

we thought here was an evening meal and a few drinks in the beer garden to observe the desert. the meal orders are taken from six o'clock. menu is mainly fish and chips or fish basket and the like, all handy delivered in a carton. packed with lemon and presumably from the untouched waters of coober pedy. but I must say that both the fish and the chips tasted quite well and the beer and the desert was added. so much t...
