I went to Tiruvannamalai during low season so many places weren't open. Dreaming Tree and Shanti Cafe were my go to places each day. Good fresh food. Good basics like simple fruit salad, fruit juices, eggs, soup, and also Indian options. read more. As a guest, you can use the WLAN of the place free of charge, Depending on the weather, you can also sit outside and eat. What User doesn't like about Dreaming Tree:

Visited this place during my visit to Tiruvannamalai. I found the prices quite high for India (250 for a simple pasta dish). It took a while for someone to finally come to my table so I could order. I also saw a weird scene there which didn't allow me to return and is the main reason for me to give this place only one star. The waiter (a woman, who's also cashier) got a glass to serve a customer. She noticed there wa... read more. Currently many are maybe thinking about a healthier diet; specifically for this mindset, Dreaming Tree's menu offers a selection of light menus, At the bar, you can relax with a freshly tapped beer or other alcoholic and non-alcoholic drinks. Look forward to the enjoyment of scrumptious vegetarian meals, here they serve a diverse brunch for breakfast.
